

Does your Law Firm have a Marketing Plan?

Legiscomm Pte Ltd is a professional services marketing consultancy dedicated to the marketing of law firms with expertise in:

Marketing & Business Development: We help law firms develop powerful marketing and business development plans to increase awareness of their firm, its capabilities as well as its key personalities within the firm. From carefully curated websites and online marketing strategies, to getting your lawyers and law firms ranked in prestigious legal publications, as well as planning of bespoke business development events to engage targeted demographics, there are numerous strategies you can employ. Speak to us about your marketing goals to find out which strategies will suit your practice!

Law Firm Branding: We help law firms develop powerful strategies that tell their stories in a bold and powerful voice whether it be highlighting their expertise or profiling their key people. We'll help you find your voice which will distinguish your law firm from another, to create a unique identity for your firm in the minds of your existing clients as well as potential new clients.

Content Marketing: Content Marketing is increasingly being used by law firms as they find it the best long-term strategy for services marketing. We provide expertise on the creation of compelling content across your website, newsletters and social media platforms for client engagement and lead generation. Call us at Tel: 62228613 or email us at contact@legiscomm.com to find out how!

Join our facebook page to stay updated on how law firms can market themselves!